2009 Scholarship Application for Spring Semester 2010

Purpose: In order to promote agricultural appraisal as a profession that is important to the economy and environment in Wisconsin and to advance the science of agriculture in general, the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (WC/ASFMRA) has established a scholarship program for students enrolled in agri-business management, land economics or real estate appraisal.

Amount of Scholarship: Up to two $500 scholarships will be awarded for the Spring Semester 2007. (One to a UW-Madison student and one to a UW-River Falls student.)

Deadline for Application: December 1, 2009

Qualifications:

Eligible students must be currently enrolled as a junior or senior and must have an interest in farm management and / or rural real estate appraisal. Majors in agribusiness management, agricultural economics, real estate and production agriculture are encouraged to apply.

This scholarship is based on merit and not on financial need.

Application Procedure: Interested students can obtain an application form from their agri-business club advisor; from the WC/ASFMRA Secretary or an electronic copy (WORD2000) may be obtained from the WC/ASFMRA website <http://www.wcasfmra.org/>

Mail one copy of all relevant materials (application, copy of grade transcript & a faculty letter of recommendation) by the December 1, 2009 deadline to:

Arlin Brannstrom
WC/ASFMRA Secretary - Treasurer
7310 Farmington Way
Madison, WI 53717
